Catalina Island Camps
Where Campers Thrive

WE LOVE BEING CAMP DIRECTORS!

Every morning we wake up excited to know that the work we do positively influences kids. Whether our campers are snorkeling or sailing or challenging themselves on the high ropes course, they are gaining experiences that build self-confidence and resiliency. They are growing and developing skills that will help them to feel a sense of achievement and pride in accomplishment.

We see ourselves as “partners with parents”. We provide a safe and healthy environment in which children and teens can develop independence, helping them to make good choices when they go back to school and face the pressures of growing up.

Please give us the opportunity to talk with you about how CIC can make a difference for your child.

Let's talk soon!
